Harmony Day and Book Fair

Don't forget this Friday the 23rd March is Harmony Day and Book Fair!

Children are asked to wear orange and make a gold coin donation.

All money raised will be donated to " Father Chris Riley's Youth Off The Street Program".

Parents and caregivers are invited to join in classroom activities from 10-11.00am. Prior to this, parents can check out the Book Fair in the library or have some time out near the canteen area.

A picnic lunch is for all students and visitors in the playground from 11.00 – 11.30 ( Lunch to be supplied by parents/ caregivers as normal or lunch orders placed at canteen before school as normal).

There will be a Mini- Presentation under the NOLA from 11.30 till 12.00pm.

Students will be allocated a time to come to the library with their class to purchase books from the book fair.

Parents and caregivers are welcome to come to the library during the lunch break to purchase books.

Thank you to those who volunteered to help at the Book Fair.

Look out for a letter coming home with more details!
